THE Key Piece

A MONTHLY PUBLICATION OF
LOYD J. BOURGEOIS LLC

"Leave home with a big, bright dream.
Nurture it into a bigger, brighter reality."

– Unknown

The house feels quieter; his room a little emptier, but it's all part of the natural progression of life. The excitement in his eyes mirrored the pride in our hearts as we moved Preston into the dorms of his dream school and our alma mater, LSU.

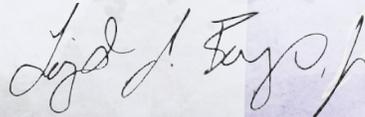

As parents, we've done our best to prepare Preston for this new chapter. We've instilled values, offered guidance, and shared lessons, knowing he's equipped to face the challenges ahead. Our interactions and relationship might evolve, but the bond we share remains unwavering.

In this moment, nostalgia intertwines with anticipation. It's a bittersweet reminder that our roles as parents are ever-changing. We'll undoubtedly miss his presence around the house, the everyday anecdotes, and his distinct laughter reverberating through its rooms. Yet witnessing him unfold his wings and explore the world brings its own sense of fulfillment.

As Preston embarks on this new adventure, we'll continue to be his unwavering support system, cheering him on from a distance and eagerly awaiting the stories he'll bring back home.

In the end, him leaving for college is a testament to our shared accomplishments. We've nurtured and guided him to this point, and now he's ready to embrace the challenges and joys that lie ahead.

WILLA JEAN BISCUITS

These biscuits are known as "Baker's Biscuits." They have flaky layers similar to a croissant. You will likely have to special order the flour. Kelly Fields, owner of Willa Jean Bakery and winner of the James Beard Foundation's "Outstanding Pastry Chef," says this is the secret ingredient — no other flour will do. The other secret is to freeze the biscuits before baking. The colder they are, the higher they rise.

INGREDIENTS

Makes 12 large biscuits

- 6 cups 00 flour, preferably Italian Antimo Caputo flour
- 1/4 cup plus 2 tbsp. baking powder
- 2 tbsp. granulated sugar
- 1 tbsp. kosher salt
- 3/4 cup plus 3 tbsp. cold unsalted butter, grated on the large holes of a box grater and placed in the freezer
- 3 cups cold buttermilk, plus 1/4 cup for brushing on top
- All-purpose flour for dusting

INSTRUCTIONS

In a large bowl, mix the 00 flour, baking powder, sugar, and salt. Add the butter and use your hands to cut into the flour, smearing the mixture between your fingertips to create flakes; there should be a combination of large and small flecks of butter, and the flour will start to take on the color of the butter. Make a well in the center of the dry ingredients from the edges into the buttermilk until incorporated. Add the remaining 1 1/2 cups buttermilk and stir just until a shaggy dough forms.

Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Dust your work surface liberally with all-purpose flour. Turn the dough out of the bowl and pat it into a rectangle; it's okay if the dough barely holds together. Fold one-third of the dough to the center, then fold the other third on top, like folding a letter. Using a lightly floured rolling pin, roll the dough into a 6-by-13-inch rectangle, and repeat the process. Roll again to a 6-by-13-inch rectangle, until about 1 inch thick. Cut the dough into 12 biscuits; each one should be a little less than 3 inches square (there might be some leftover dough). Transfer the biscuits to the prepared baking sheet. Place the baking sheet in the freezer for at least 12 hours and up to overnight, covering the biscuits with plastic wrap once they're frozen.

Preheat the oven to 400 degrees. Brush the tops of the frozen biscuits with the remaining 1/4 cup buttermilk. Bake for 40 minutes, rotating the baking sheet after 20 minutes, until the biscuits have risen, are golden, and sound hollow when you flick the bottoms. Serve hot. Store wrapped loosely in foil or plastic wrap at room temperature up to overnight. From "The Good Book of Southern Baking" by Kelly Fields with Kate Heddings.

ANNIVERSARY MAGIC

Lindy and I spent two days with our mastermind group of lawyers working together to improve ourselves, our businesses, and our communities. But it wasn't all work. We enjoyed a fun evening with the group at dinner and a magic show by Illusions By Vick. Vick has a pretty interesting back story, as he became a magician after a career as a marketer. He was able to put those skills to use in growing his magic business.

By the "power of telepathy," he knew our names and the fact we were celebrating our 21st anniversary! We were invited to be part of the show where our chosen cards were magically joined together much like our hearts. Aww!

REVIEW ROUNDUP

"I'm glad that I took the right decision to hire the firm of Loyd J. Bourgeois, LLC to handle my disability case. Heather and Christy were always available to answer my questions and guided me through the whole process. Thanks everyone; I'll be gladly recommending you to anyone that is in need for legal services. I'm very happy thanking God and the LJB firm staff members from the Luling office, for their efforts to help me accomplish my SSD case. I wish the best for everyone in the firm to keep helping others in need."

— Oscar

"Christy was a joy to communicate with!! After dealing with the SSA and being "dropped" by another law firm, Christy assured me that she would do ALL that she could to get what I deserved.

Christy reviewed bundles of paperwork, files, emails, verifications, and other necessary information in order to prepare for my hearing. She did her due diligence in preparing me for what I was to expect at my hearing. After my hearing, she emailed me on a regular basis to give me updates and kept my mind at ease.

My journey to receive my benefits started three years ago. Today, 11 weeks after my hearing, Christy Crotwell called me and informed me that my appeal was decided. The judge ruled in my favor.

This has been a long tedious journey for me, but [the] LJB Law Firm took my hand and told me that it was not over. I highly recommend Loyd J. Bourgeois, attorney-at-law and associates to fight for you. They NEVER give up on the truth."

—Janie

Thanks to your nominations, we're finalists in another local competition — Best of the River Parishes. This one is especially touching since we're not just Top 3 in legal categories, but also in "Best Locally Owned Company" and "Best Place to Work!"

We cannot thank all of you enough for your continued support of our firm and mission. Please vote daily through Aug. 3!
